About us

Located in Melbourne on the traditional lands of the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin Nation, the Royal Women's Hospital is Australia's first and leading specialist hospital for women and newborns. We offer expertise in maternity services, neonatal care, gynaecology, assisted reproduction, women's health and cancer services. We advocate for women's health in areas that have long been overlooked or stigmatised, including abortion, endometriosis, family violence, female genital mutilation, menopause, women's mental health, sexual assault and substance use in pregnancy.

Our vision, values and declaration

The Women's vision, values and declaration reflect our promise to our patients and consumers, and articulate our culture and commitment to our community and each other.

Our vision is 'Creating healthier futures for women and babies'. Our values are:

Courage

Passion

Discovery

Respect

The Women's declaration reflects the principles and philosophies fundamental to our hospital, our people and our culture.

- We are committed to the social model of health
- We care for women from all walks of life
- We recognise that sex and gender affect health and healthcare
- We are a voice for women's health
- We seek to achieve health equity

Our commitment to inclusion

The Women's is committed to creating and maintaining a diverse and inclusive environment which enhances staff and consumer wellbeing, and nurtures a sense of belonging. We strongly encourage anyone identifying as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander to join us. We offer a range of programs and services to support First Nations employees. We invite people with disability to work with us, and we welcome anyone who identifies as linguistically, culturally and/or gender diverse, people from the LGBTQIA+ community and people of any age.

About the department/unit

The Anaesthetic Department at the Royal Women's Hospital in Melbourne is one of the largest specialist obstetric anaesthetic departments in Australia.

It has a national reputation for its clinical care, research and training.

Position purpose

Provide high quality clinical Anaesthetic services through provision of elective and emergency care in the in-hours and out-of-hours periods. Participate in the unit activities designed to facilitate a cycle of continuous quality improvement to ensure the best possible standard of care is delivered and in the training requirements of students and trainees.

Key responsibilities

Provision of Direct clinical care

- To lead by example in delivering high quality clinical care to women using RWH services
- Provide anaesthesia and related clinical services to public and private patients of The Royal Women's Hospital and Frances Perry where required.
- Participate in the out-of-hours on call roster on weeknights, public holidays and weekends as rostered
- While on call the consultant is to be exclusively available to the Royal Women's Hospital and be able to attend as clinically required within 30 minutes usual travel time.
- To ensure that consultations, treatment plans and other aspects of care delivered are rigorously documented to support ongoing care and communication and to meet medico-legal requirements
- To ensure that the care of all patients is handled over or other suitable arrangements for follow up, including follow up of results, are in place whenever leaving the Hospital or going "off call"
- To ensure continuity of care by identifying and communicating promptly with other practitioners including community general practitioners
- To be accountable for all care delivered by junior medical staff with delegated responsibility during periods of duty
- Manage incidents, adverse events and complaints in conjunction with the Anaesthetic Department leadership and the Quality and Safety Unit

Practice improvement, research and service development

- To promote and maintain exemplary standards of clinical practice to ensure the provision of high quality services to patients
- To participate in the development, implementation and revision of treatment protocols and clinical guidelines to promote and ensure best practice standards
- To participate in the clinical quality assurance and peer review activities of the Department
- To participate in the research activities of the Department and help further develop research capabilities within the Department
- To ensure that consumer input is welcomed and encouraged

Education, Training and Professional Development

- To ensure awareness of clinical experience and proficiency of junior medical staff delegated to deliver care and provide direct supervision as necessary
- To participate in clinical teaching of junior medical staff and medical students, including involving students in clinical care, subject to consent of patients concerned
- To assist in the instruction and professional development of post graduate and undergraduate students of all health professionals and disciplines
- To participate as agreed in mentoring a specific member of junior medical staff
- To maintain participation in ongoing Australia New Zealand College of Anaesthetics clinical professional development program
- To participate in hospital provided professional development activities and keep up to date with relevant developments in clinical and hospital practice.

Administrative Responsibilities

- To participate in meetings required to manage the service and communicate with team members
- To participate in meetings as delegated and reasonably required by the Service Directors to facilitate appropriate service management and development in the Hospital
- To take on specific portfolio management as may be reasonably required by the Director of Anaesthesia.
- To take part in administrative duties as may be reasonably required by the Director of Anaesthesia
- To maintain ongoing medical registration and medical indemnity
- To ensure that up to date contact details are notified to the designated staff member responsible for maintaining medical contact information.
- To take annual leave or conference leave only after allocation and approval. This must occur with sufficient lead time to allow for arrangement of cover or cancellation of clinic work (usually at least four weeks in advance)
- To take annual leave within 18 months of its accrual, except where other arrangements are negotiated; this would usually mean no more than six weeks annual leave should be accrued.

Key Performance Indicators (KPI's)

KPI's are how you will be measured as meeting the responsibilities of the position. These will be set with you as part of your Performance Development Plan within the first six months of your appointment to the position.

Key selection criteria

- The consultant will be a fellow of the Australia New Zealand College of Anaesthetics or equivalent, registered or eligible for registration with the AHPRA.
- The consultant will have proven clinical skills and experience.
- The consultant will be an anaesthetist meeting the above criteria, appointed by the Board of the hospital.
