Reporting to:	Unit Head/Team Leader

About us

Located in Melbourne on the traditional lands of the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin Nation, the Royal Women's Hospital is Australia's first and leading specialist hospital for women and newborns. We offer expertise in maternity services, neonatal care, gynaecology, assisted reproduction, women's health and cancer services. We advocate for women's health in areas that have long been overlooked or stigmatised, including abortion, endometriosis, family violence, female genital mutilation, menopause, women's mental health, sexual assault and substance use in pregnancy.

Our vision, values and declaration

The Women's vision, values and declaration reflect our promise to our patients and consumers, and articulate our culture and commitment to our community and each other.

Our vision is 'Creating healthier futures for women and babies'. Our values are:

Courage

Passion

Discovery

Respect

The Women's declaration reflects the principles and philosophies fundamental to our hospital, our people and our culture.

- We are committed to the social model of health
- We care for women from all walks of life
- We recognise that sex and gender affect health and healthcare
- We are a voice for women's health
- We seek to achieve health equity

Our commitment to inclusion

The Women's is committed to creating and maintaining a diverse and inclusive environment which enhances staff and consumer wellbeing, and nurtures a sense of belonging. We strongly encourage anyone identifying as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander to join us. We offer a range of programs and services to support First Nations employees. We invite people with disability to work with us, and we welcome anyone who identifies as linguistically, culturally and/or gender diverse, people from the LGBTQIA+ community and people of any age.

About the department/unit

The Gynaecology Department provides specialist treatment and care to women requiring gynaecological intervention. The department provides inpatient care to approximately 6,800 women per year, and provides further treatment through a busy outpatients department.

Position purpose

The Gynaecology service at the RWH is looking for a skilled and motivated person/s to fill vacancies within the service. The successful applicant will:

- Desirable if able to perform independent Level 6 laparoscopic surgery and/or complex open gynaecological procedures
- Contribute confidently to the acute gynaecology theatre and on-call roster
- Provide senior clinical leadership in decision-making, intraoperative management, postoperative care and escalation
- Support safe training without compromising service delivery

This role is not a developmental post. Applicants must demonstrate established technical proficiency, reliability in acute settings, and the capacity to work autonomously within a high-volume tertiary unit.

It would be expected that suitable applicants participate in Gynaecology unit meetings and audits as well as attending and participating in structured meetings such as Morbidity/Mortality meeting and pre-admission meetings. RWH is a tertiary teaching hospital and the role comprises structured and non-structured teaching, training and supervision of medical students and junior doctors.

It will serve as an opportunity to seek out new talent, cross-hospital or cross-district collaboration, and as a means for interaction between hospital networks.

Key responsibilities

1. Direct clinical care

- To lead by example in delivering high quality clinical care to women using RWH services, including independent operative practice for complex benign disease
- To ensure that consultations, treatment plans and other aspects of care delivered are rigorously documented to support ongoing care and communication and to meet medico-legal requirements
- To ensure that the care of all patients is handed over or other suitable arrangements for follow up, including follow up of results, are in place whenever leaving the Hospital or going "off call"
- To ensure continuity of care by identifying and communicating promptly with other practitioners including community general practitioners
- To be accountable for all care delivered by junior medical staff with delegated responsibility during periods of duty
- To participate in resolving problems in care and to ensure that the team leader is aware of relevant issues and problems

2. Practice improvement, research and service development

- To promote and maintain exemplary standards of clinical practice to ensure the provision of high quality services to patients.
- To maintain operative currency in advanced laparoscopy (Level 6) and/or open surgery
- To participate in the development, implementation and revision of treatment protocols and clinical guidelines to promote and ensure best practice standards.

- To participate in service planning as requested by the Team Leader and Service Directors the development and setting of targets, resource requirements and improvement priorities for the service agreement.
- To work collaboratively with other team members and the Team Leader to facilitate clinical service improvement through clinical audit and research. Each consultant is expected to participate in at least one clinical audit or research project every three years.
- To ensure that consumer input is welcomed and encouraged

3. Education, Training and Professional Development

- To ensure awareness of clinical experience and proficiency of junior medical staff delegated to deliver care and provide direct supervision as necessary.
- To participate in clinical teaching and hands-on surgical teaching of junior medical staff and medical students, including involving students in clinical care, subject to consent of patients concerned.
- To assist in the instruction and professional development of post graduate and undergraduate students of all health professions and disciplines.
- To participate as agreed in mentoring a specific member of junior medical staff.
- To maintain personal qualifications in accordance with continuing certification requirements of relevant medical college or other body.
- To participate in hospital provided professional development activities and keep up to date with relevant developments in clinical and hospital practice.

4. Administrative responsibilities

- To participate in meetings required to manage the service and communicate with team members
- To participate in meetings as delegated and reasonably required by the Team Leader or Service Directors to facilitate appropriate service management and development in the Hospital
- To ensure that up to date contact details are notified to the designated staff member responsible for maintaining medical contact information. Some staff information will only be provided electronically.
- To take annual or conference leave only after application and approval, which must occur with sufficient lead time to allow for arrangement of cover or cancellation of clinical work, usually at least four weeks in advance.
- To take annual leave within 18 months of its accrual, except where other arrangements are negotiated; this would usually mean no more than six weeks annual leave should be accrued.

Key Performance Indicators (KPI's)

KPI's are how you will be measured as meeting the responsibilities of the position. These will be set with you as part of your Performance Development Plan within the first six months of your appointment to the position.

Key selection criteria

The role requires a person with:

- Must hold or be eligible for registration with the Medical Practitioners Board of Australia
