About us

Located in Melbourne on the traditional lands of the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin Nation, the Royal Women's Hospital is Australia's first and leading specialist hospital for women and newborns. We offer expertise in maternity services, neonatal care, gynaecology, assisted reproduction, women's health and cancer services. We advocate for women's health in areas that have long been overlooked or stigmatised, including abortion, endometriosis, family violence, female genital mutilation, menopause, women's mental health, sexual assault and substance use in pregnancy.

Our vision, values and declaration

The Women's vision, values and declaration reflect our promise to our patients and consumers, and articulate our culture and commitment to our community and each other.

Our vision is 'Creating healthier futures for women and babies'. Our values are:

Courage

Passion

Discovery

Respect

The Women's declaration reflects the principles and philosophies fundamental to our hospital, our people and our culture.

- We are committed to the social model of health
- We care for women from all walks of life
- We recognise that sex and gender affect health and healthcare
- We are a voice for women's health
- We seek to achieve health equity

Our commitment to inclusion

The Women's is committed to creating and maintaining a diverse and inclusive environment which enhances staff and consumer wellbeing, and nurtures a sense of belonging. We strongly encourage anyone identifying as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander to join us. We offer a range of programs and services to support First Nations employees. We invite people with disability to work with us, and we welcome anyone who identifies as linguistically, culturally and/or gender diverse, people from the LGBTQIA+ community and people of any age.

About the department/unit

The Casual RN Division 1 is responsible for providing care to women and their families within a multidisciplinary environment, working collegially with other health professionals on a casual basis.

The Casual RN Division 1 is accountable each shift to the Nurse in Charge of the ward/department on which they are employed, who is responsible for ensuring services provided are:

- Women focused to respect the rights, needs and expectations of women
- Integrated and consistent
- Evidence-based
- Supportive of a learning environment for all colleagues

The Casual RN Division 1 works under the management of the Workforce Manager who is responsible for all employment and allocation requirements of casual staff at the Women's.

Position purpose

Casual Registered Nurses are responsible for strengthening health outcomes through the provision of safe, quality, holistic and sensitive care, from admission to discharge. They work collaboratively in partnership with patients, consumers and other health professionals.

Key responsibilities

Clinical practice

- Monitor patients by assessing, planning, implementing and re-evaluating their care, leading to exceptional patient experiences
- Consult with the multidisciplinary healthcare team as required to identify patient care options and plans
- Involve the patient and their family in decisions around their care
- Prioritise workload based on need, acuity and optimal treatment time, responding effectively to unexpected or rapidly changing situations
- Identify concerns/issues impeding efficient or safe service delivery to the Nurse Unit Manager and participate in implementing strategies for resolution
- Ensure that accurate information and records are maintained, using the Women's Electronic Medical Record (EMR) to fulfil the duties of the position
- Any other duties as required that meet relevant standards and recognised practice

Communication and teamwork

- Accept accountability for own actions and seek guidance when a situation exceeds experience or knowledge, delegating aspects of care to others as appropriate
- Communicate and collaborate effectively with others to facilitate the provision of care, and actively engage in team meetings
- Support the development of others by acting as a resource to colleagues, participating in orientating, precepting and mentoring of students and new staff, including graduate nurses and other learners

Quality, safety and improvement

- Ensure a safe environment is maintained for patients, visitors and staff by being aware of and involved in Occupational Health & Safety management of the unit
